

By the Kings Maiestie.

WHereas it hath pleased the Kings most excellent Maiestie of his princely loue and fauour, to giue and grant vnto his subiects, the inhabitants of Kingnorton in the Countie of Worcester a perpetuall weekly market, and two faires in the yeare, as by his Maiesties letters pattents vnder the Great Seale of England at large as doth ap-peare, which said weekly markets are to be kept within the fore-said towne of Kingnorton on the Saturday of euery weeke, where it shall and may be lawfull for any his Maiesties true and loy-all subiects, to buy or sell any manner of corne or graine with cattell of all sorts, with any other commodity fit and necessary to be bought or sold in any any other Faire or Market within this kingdome, and for the beginning of these said faires and markets, be it knowne vnto all his Maiesties louing subiects that the first Faire is to be held and kept the fift, sixt, and seuenth day of August next ensuing, and the first Market, the Saturday next and immediatly following, and so weekly to continue, the other of the two Faires to begin on Saints Marks eue, and so to continue three whole dayes also; and for the encouragement of his Maiestie subiects to proceede in this uecessary action, it is provided t what corne or graine shall be there sold the same to be free from tole, and whosoever shall make repaire to either of the said Faires shall within the precincts or liberties of Kingnorton aforesaid, freely passe without molestation by any writ or arrest whatsoever during the space of either of the three daies aforenamed for either of the said Faires appointed.
